2010 Tax Year
New York Southern District Court of New York
Case #: 7:10 c.v. 8505 Christoff vs. Saturn Business Systems et. al.

Dear IRS Tax Representative:

I am writing to you based on my conversations held with the following Tax Representatives ID#: 0173995, 0341367, 0568842 respectively on 08/31/2012. The following is my summary of the conversations. Representative #0173995 advised me that since my Tax issue has not been resolved that I should be speaking with the Tax Advocate Group. She provided me with the phone number for the Tax Advocate Group 1-877-777-4778 and I spoke to Tax Advocate Representative #0341367. The Tax Advocate Rep then told me that I was erroneously sent to his group and he routed me back to the CP2000 Group and I spoke to #0568842. I requested an update regarding the status of having my former employer Saturn Business Systems investigated for inaccuracies with their reporting of my income in 2010. I was never provided with a final financial statement regarding total earnings from Saturn Business Systems. Therefore, my taxes were inaccurately reported and I do not agree with the IRS' Summary. Tax Rep #0568842 advised me that the IRS did send out a notification to my former employer on May 17, 2012. However, Saturn Business Systems declined to provide me with a statement. I did NOT receive a copy of this letter from the IRS dated 05/17/2012. My understanding is that this letter advised Saturn Business Systems that they had 60 days to respond. According to the IRS, they never responded.

I made several attempts to obtain information from Saturn Business Systems. They declined to provide me with an explanation of the discrepancy of $523.38. Also, I was short paid approximately a final commission check which is fraud and I notified the IRS.

I am requesting a copy of the following documentation from the IRS.

- 1.) The letter that was sent to Saturn Business System on May 17, 2012.
- 2.) A written summary of all the notes taken from the Tax Representatives year to date regarding this case.

Finally, I am sending a copy to Judge Seibel, so that she is aware that the Attorneys representing Saturn Business Systems failed to provide me with a statement to explain the $523.38. I am requesting that courts charge Mr. Singer of Tannenbaum, Helpern, Syracuse & Hirschtritt, Saturn Business Systems and the IBM Corporation with violations. IBM failed to respond in a timely manner to multiple requests of my Discovery. I expect to be compensated for falsification and wrong doing as per Article Six New York State Law.

Sincerely,

Stephanie Christoff
